NEW TO MARKET

Library of Chic

Tailored, timeless, and quietly powerful: four new collections that shake up dapper, old-school style

FRANK PONTERIO
Handsome leather, wool, and woven trims call to mind the bespoke detailing of Italian tailoring. Amici, Amici, and Ossoli are the new, classic English style.

The V List

J. RANDALL POWERS
The Houston designer's debut collection of woven window and wallcoverings is a clever, clean reboot of traditional plaids using updated grids of irregular pencil stripes. JG Plaid shade and wallcovering, to the trade; hartmannforbes.com.

ANNA BRAUND
Modernized with custom finishes and a metal rod and chain mount, the Georgian native's hand-carved mirrors draw on elements of antiquity, from the classic English study to architectural moldings. Kipling mirror, to the trade; hollandmacrae.com.

BEN SOLEIMANI
Soft Belgian linens, Italian alpacas, a sumptuous mohair bouclé: The luxury goods powerhouse's new by-the-yard fabrics arrive in ultra-refined shades of parchment, sand, truffle, and lead. Performance Gem fabric, $64 per yard. Artemis barrel chair, $3,586. Alpaca fabric, $176 per yard. Alpaca Tweed fabric, $188 per yard. Performance Gem, $64 per yard. Basketweave Linen, $89 per yard; bensoleimani.com.
