One all-embracing aesthetic threads through everything we do at Hartmann&Forbes. Whether creating our collections or joining in one-of-a-kind collaborations, we aim to offer the most thoroughly soul-awakening array of sustainable designs one can imagine.

BESPOKE
[WTS]
WOVEN-TO-SIZE

In this time-honored, one-of-one method, we handweave each shade on traditional wooden looms to a window's dimensions. This painstaking technique takes time, but delivers an exquisite loom-finished edge on shades up to 180" wide, without seams. Each shade is then hand-finished to the most exacting standards, with the highest-quality components, in our Oregon facility.

NATURAL WALLCOVERING

WE SEE WALLS AS WINDOWS, TOO.

The presence of light and shade on a wall should always enhance your natural surroundings. Our collection of authentic statement wallcoverings is created from natural rapidly-renewable fibers such as abaca, sisal, ramie and jute. Each textile is woven and finished by hand before being carefully backed.

Here you'll find sanctuary, and inspiration wall-to-wall. From the warm, herbal tones of wine country to traditional Southern geometry, each design reflects a distinctly American personality.

An all-embracing way to feel even more at home.
