NATURAL WALLCOVERING

NATURAL WALLCOVERING

WE SEE WALLS AS WINDOWS, TOO.

The presence of light and shade on a wall should always enhance your natural surroundings. Our collection of authentic statement wallcoverings is created from natural rapidly-renewable fibers such as abaca, sisal, ramie and jute. Each textile is woven and finished by hand before being carefully backed.

Here you'll find sanctuary, and inspiration wall-to-wall. From the warm, herbal tones of wine country to traditional Southern geometry, each design reflects a distinctly American personality.

An all-embracing way to feel even more at home.

GRACE

Inspired by the 1920s Swedish Grace movement, this design marries Scandinavian minimalism and neoclassical expressiveness. The tone-on-tone paper weave is finely embroidered with dimensional geometric motifs and simple botanical forms, yielding a landscape both elegant and elemental.

WLAM534-06 Ivory

Width: 36" (91.4cm) | Length: 10 yds

AMY MEIER
Renowned for seamlessly blending tradition and innovation, Meier's collection spans influences from Japanese minimalism to the warmth and effortless simplicity of a Scandinavian summer. Embracing nature, structure, and ease, each design is artfully expressed through Hartmann&Forbes' handwoven textiles.

WLAM38-03 Alabaster

FRAMEWORK

This sophisticated, yet soothing wallcovering is a contemporary nod to the traditional chogak bo or patchwork style of Korean Bojagi. Blocks of woven paper in varying sizes are hand-placed in a restrained linear architecture that can be custom arranged to create specific styles and ambiances.

Width: 36" (91.4cm) | Length: By-the-Yard
Shown: WLAM38-03 Framework – Alabaster, Wallcovering

HIGH DESERT

The High Desert series combines the stark beauty of the back country with the tenderness of life that thrives there. Striated, textured and dramatic, each weave exudes the warmth and character that draws people to the desert.

AGRA
LATTICE

Inspired by beautiful, hand-turned spindle designs used throughout Indian architecture for generations, Agra Lattice depicts a maze-like, hand-stenciled pattern with abstracts that play upon form, texture and movement. Smith has adapted the traditional spindle motif and has reinterpreted it into a rhythmic arrangement on rich, woven wallcovering that is as meditative as it is vibrant.

HARBOR

Sailboat-dotted inlets and ocean sunbeams inspired this eye-catching design. Hearty bac bac fiber is hand-stripped, handwoven, backed with colored paper, then washed with white or metallic pigments. This artisanal process creates a dimensional wallcovering of extraordinary character.

BIG SKY

The spectacular color display of Montana’s open ranges is translated into this vigorous textural weave of jute and linen. Exposed knots and striated sagebrush colors contribute to a strong linear design.

WL419-21 Badlands

LISA KANNING

Kanning's love of organic shapes and materials informs her collection for Hartmann&Forbes. Layered window and wall coverings are detailed with intricate patterns that mimic those found in nature while maintaining a sophisticated sensibility that suits a range of settings.

SYCAMORE

Reminiscent of Sycamore tree bark, this series features a captivating camouflage pattern. The mottled motif is rendered in a complex layering of silver-painted paper, laser-cut cork, sisal and metallic embroidery – the interplay of materials bringing rich depth and organic beauty.
