NATURAL FIBERS

SUSTAINABLE MATERIALS OF NOBLE CHARACTER
ARE THE HEART OF OUR ARTISTIC MEDIUM

Natural fibers are our muse. Every strand is selected for its subtle color and texture — all with an eye for creating a single, harmonious whole. Choosing only the finest renewable varieties farmed in well-managed ecosystems, we handweave them into luxurious textiles.

WOVEN-TO-SIZE

In this time-honored, one-of-one method, we handweave each shade on traditional wooden looms to a window's dimensions. This painstaking technique takes time, but delivers an exquisite loom-finished edge on shades up to 180" wide, without seams. Each shade is then hand-finished to the most exacting standards, with the highest-quality components, in our Oregon facility.

JG PLAID

Taking notes from the JG Plaid handwoven Grassweave design, the JG Plaid wallcovering is defined by crisscrossing pencil stripes in hues of linen. The natural woven sisal is flooded with a moss green color and the stripes are gravure-printed for an intriguing dimensional look.

MORGAN

J. Randall Powers drew inspiration for this series from his collection of Native American baskets. Marked by a refined zigzag pattern that's gravure-printed in three natural tones on a jute-paper ground, the wallcovering delivers visual dimension and a touch of playful flair.

UPTOWN

This refined wallcovering conveys the energy of urban construction. An abstract grid design is enlarged, rotary printed, then a thin layer of linen delicately hand applied to soften the effect. The result is a seamless backdrop that adds an element of the unexpected.

ALEUTIAN

Aleutian's soft, suede-like texture reveals one-of-a-kind tonal variations that enrich this exotic, artisan-crafted wallcovering. Painstakingly hand-placed sano panels in an organic palette create a quiet composition.

CATHEDRAL

Resembling the glossy bark of rain-soaked aspens in the Cathedral region of the Colorado mountains, this innovative design is created with hand-sliced cork skillfully placed on metallic backing paper, then printed with a design inspired by winter woodlands. This meticulous process results in a lasting impression.
