Natural Harmony

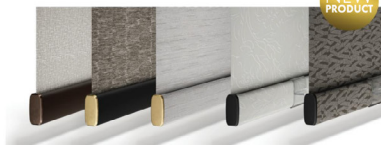

Lutron and Hartmann&Forbes unite craftsmanship and technology with Native by Design, a new partnership pairing Lutron's intelligent motorized shades with Hartmann&Forbes' handwoven natural textiles. Crafted from renewable fibers like grasses and reeds, the collection brings organic warmth to whisper-quiet roman and roller shades, delivering seamless performance, timeless style and effortless integration. All the Trimmings

Temperley London and Romo celebrate the season with a jewel box of decadent trimmings rich in color, texture and holiday spirit. Embroidered feathers, velvet leopard braids, lace-inspired fringes and classic multi-tassel trims capture a sense of festive grandeur. Inspired by the ornate details of the Temperley London archive, each piece adds a dash of opulence to draperies, pillows or gifts, making every detail feel dressed for the occasion. Romo.com

A Touch of Opulence

TEXTON adds a refined finishing touch to its COLOR Roller Shades with the debut of their new decorative bottom rail collection, Opulence. Offered in eight metal finishes or fabric-wrapped styles with mix-and-match end caps, Opulence brings subtle glamour to any space. The collection makes it easy to create a cohesive, custom look, proving that a little polish goes a long way in transforming functional into beautiful. Texton.com
