

HARTMANN & FORBES®

New for Spring 2026: Hartmann&Forbes Presents Meandering Wilderness

A sensory journey through nature, Meandering Wilderness unfolds as a symphony of sights, sounds, and textures, inviting moments of reflection and a deeper connection to the wild's poetic rhythm.

Inspired by the gentle wandering through a dense forest, this collection pays homage to nature's poetry. Each handwoven shade, artisanal wallcovering, and refined textile captures nature's quiet splendor, from the subtle elegance of misty mornings and the velvety depth of lush moss to the whispered cadence of leaves beneath your feet.

"The forest reminds us to slow down, to listen, to see beauty in stillness," shares Rebecca Welch, Design Director. "With this collection, we sought to translate that feeling through the play of shadow and light and the weave's natural rhythm, to create designs that layer beautifully and bring sanctuary to the home."

Rooted in craftsmanship and reverence for the natural world, the collection explores organic textures and nuanced weaves that echo nature's own design language, layered, tactile, and quietly expressive.

The palette is drawn from the forest's most contemplative moments. Velvety greens, mossy browns, soft grays, and earthy neutrals come together in effortless harmony, evoking a sense of calm discovery and timeless connection.

TENDRIL

WOVEN-TO-SIZE GRASSWEAVE WINDOWCOVERING

An earthy fragrance lingers in the hand-placed vetiver roots, their fibrous texture stretching across the shifting tones of the warp. Like vines finding their path, the strands create a surface that feels both rooted and fluid, casting light with nuanced dimension.

BIRDSONG

WOVEN-TO-SIZE GRASSWEAVE WINDOWCOVERING

Like the gentle chorus that awakens the morning, Birdsong carries a sense of rhythm and natural poetry. Handwoven with an airy interplay of luminous banana fiber and softly textured cotton, the design feels alive with movement. Its sheer structure allows light to drift through in shifting patterns, much like sunlight breaking through a canopy of branches at dawn.

HONEYCOMB

SOFT NATURAL FABRIC WINDOWCOVERING

Handwoven with the slow cadence of the loom, Honeycomb echoes the quiet geometry of nature's design. Linen and cotton slub yarns interlace with subtle variation, creating a dimensional weave that softens light into a warm, textural glow.

STRIA

SOFT NATURAL FABRIC WINDOWCOVERING

Named for the fine streaks found in stone and wood, Stria traces subtle lines of light across a sheer linen ground. Smooth specialty yarns drift through the weave at unexpected intervals, creating an airy textile with depth, where every variation tells a story shaped by the loom. MASTERS OF LINEN CERTIFIED.

PARTERRE

SOFT NATURAL FABRIC WINDOWCOVERING

Inspired by the measured order of a parterre garden, this design rests on a base of pure linen where embroidery moves in harmonious flow, creating lines both architectural and organic. Light drifts across the raised threads, casting delicate shadows that enrich the natural fabric's composed, dimensional beauty
